

World map showing the distribution of 15 populations of the butterfly species Bicyclus notata. The populations are marked with black dots and labeled with their names in white boxes. The map shows a high concentration of populations in the tropical regions of Africa, Asia, and Australia, with a few populations in Central and South America. The populations are: Tegucigalpa, Porlamar, Ibagué, Teresópolis, Teresina, Tshimbalanga, Abu Matarig, Musumba, Morondava, Al Misrah, Goba, Nyunzu, Coimbatore, Durg, Wangjiazhai, and Kilaeng.

- Not in the sample
- In the sample